

After reading End of Story, find as many literary devices as you can and complete the table below, identifying the device within the text, and explaining its use.

[illegible]